

One Time Through

Living the life of husband and wife
We thought our troubles were through.
We did not know what we could not know
Two blind mice in a flue

Plans were made, facts overlaid;
No time to burn with desire.
The clock tock-ticked on our backward mix;
Soon we were more smoke than fire.

One time through is all I can do, I gave it all that I have.
So now I just do what I do even when I don't do it for you.

You cooked great meals, I made some very sweet deals
But our bed was more like a dam.
The distance just grew, we broke into two
And the ring came off of my hand.

One time through is all I can do, I gave it all that I have.
So now I just do what I do even when I don't do it for you.

Bridge:
It's over ... It's over

You cooked great meals, I made some very sweet deals
But our bed was more like a dam.
The distance just grew, we broke into two
And the ring came off of my hand.

One time through is all I can do --
I gave it all that I have.
So now I just do what I do
Even when I don't do it for you.
So now I just do what I do
Even when I don't do it for you.
