

Stranger in a Strange Land

Leon Russell

How many days has it been since I was born, how many days until I die?
Do I know any ways that I can make you laugh,
Or do I only know how to make you cry?

When the baby looks around him it's such a sight to see
He shares a simple secret with the wise man

He's a stranger in a strange land, just a stranger in a strange land
He's a stranger in a strange land, just a stranger in a strange land

How many miles will it take to see the sun?
How many years until it's done?
Kiss my confusion away in the night lay by side when the morning comes.

And the baby looks around him and shares his bed of hay
With the burrow in the palace of the king

He's a stranger in a strange land, just a stranger in a strange land ...

Well, I don't exactly know what's going on in the world today
Don't know what there is to say
About the way the people are treating each other, not like brothers

Leaders take us far away from ecology with mythology and astrology
Has got some words to say about the way we live today
Why can't we learn to love each other
It's time to turn a new face to the whole world wide human race

Stop the money chase, lay back, relax get back on the human track
Stop racing toward oblivion, oh, such a sad, sad state we're in

And that's a thing do you recognize the bells of truth
When you hear them ring?
Won't you stop and listen to the children sing
Won't you come on and sing it children

He's a stranger in a strange land
Just a stranger in a strange land
