

The Trouble With People Today

Thin-skinned girl with your soul unsold
No more ambition than a pot of gold
You don't notice who notices you
You've got less drive than a stubborn mule
Hold out for good.

You fall off the radar screen
No money, no power, no hidden scheme
Living very close to the bone
With your three-legged dog and a different drum
Wild as the sea.

The trouble with people today, they never see the beauty in people like you.

Riverbank hold back the tides
Secret life below the surface hides
Your rowboat cuts a silent path
Sparkling water covers your tracks
Just as it was.

The trouble with people today, they never see the beauty in people like you.

Take your time in these hours. Hold your love like a flower.

Sun sinking down at the end of the day
Why my heart goes with it I just couldn't say
Ray of hope come down from above
Shining down, a ray of love
Just as it was

The trouble with people today, they never see the beauty in people like you.

Take your time in these hours. Hold your love like a flower.
