

You Babe

Our life, we're hypnotized
By the signs on the side of the road
But you babe, you are different from all that noise
I can feel you standing near me,
You're coming through loud and clear

I know, one day you could be
I know, one day you could be gone
That's why now I love you with all I've got
I can feel your love shining
In a world I'm just divining

All I have
I offer it to you
Knowing exactly what I do

You babe, you've given more to me
Than I can say out loud
I think you know what I'm talking about
Everyone is passing by me, speeding trains
But you stand beside me, so now please don't deny me

My life, what's it for if not given to you?
My world, what's it like if not spinning on you?
I've waited a very long time
To come to you
And now as I stand, I swear for you I am

All I have
I offer it to you
Knowing exactly what I do
Knowing exactly that it's you
It's you babe
It's you babe.
